

Antitrust & Trade Regulation

Our antitrust attorneys advise clients in a broad range of industries on the antitrust implications of proposed business transactions and strategies, including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances, marketing and pricing policies, information sharing, and licensing. Our antitrust attorneys are also skilled trial practitioners who represent clients in complex criminal and civil antitrust cases nationwide.

Jones Walker serves as outside antitrust counsel for many large national and international concerns, including Chevron Phillips Chemical Company LLC, Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc., Petroleum Helicopters, Inc., Pool Corporation, Gulf Island Fabricators, Inc., and Tidewater, Inc.

